REPRINT NO. 1-1997-Advertisements adjusted and index included (Houston Co,microfilm copier used)

If you have "roots" in Houston County before 1900 and are attempting genealogical research, you have found that the Houston County area has been almost "historically forgotten". Other than HISTORY OF HOUSTON COUNTY, Iris Hopkins McClain (which has excellent information on the Arlington area), there are NO books on Houston County. The Houston County Historical Society is currently collecting information from families for their Houston County history which should be available next year. The publication of Mr. Charles Lovelady "Hornburger Journal" and "River Counties Quarterly", Jill K. Garrett, Editor, also give information about the Houston County area. Other than the before mentioned publications, information on Houston County comes in sentences and paragraphs in other area histories.

The Houston County area was sparsely settled in the early 1800's in the agriculturally fertile areas of White Oak, Cane Creek, Wells Creek, Guices Creek and Yellow Creek. Next, the iron industry on Yellow Creek, west Wells Creek and Hurricane/Leatherwood areas brought people to work in the industry and also provided income for the farmers after their crops were in (production of charcoal and digging and hauling iron ore).

In the mid 1800's, the railroad connecting north and south was completed to Paris, Tenn. from the south and to Clarksville, Tenn. from the north. The original route to complete this link was through Dover, Tenn. Someone or some group changed the railroad route and the railroad crossed the Tennessee River at what is now Darville and came up Cane Creek, across the Tenn. ridge, and down Wells Creek to Bowling Green (now called Cumberland City because there was already a "Bowling Green" on the railroad route in Kentucky). Ironically, as the Darville railroad bridge was completed, the shots were fired on Fort Sumter and the coming prosperity of the Houston County area was delayed during the war years.

When the war was over, the Houston County area boom continued with the: improvement of the railroad; rebuilding parts of the Darville bridge, starting the limestone industry in Erin and Stewart; restarting the IaGange and other furnaces; expanding the stove mill and other timber industries

This boom in population (1870 to 1900 population was almost the same as the current population) and the inconveniences on the citizens in traveling to the courts in Dover, Charlotte, Waverly, and Clarksville caused the voter referendum with the purpose of forming a new county. All but Montgomery County area voted for the formation of the new county and in 1871 the Tennessee legislature approved the formation of the new county of Houston. In the original legislation, the Cumberland City area was in Houston County and remained for 4 years until Stewart County sued Houston county and the Cumberland City area was returned by the legislature to Stewart County. The reason for the circles in the top and the bottom of the Houston County map is so the county lines will be the prescribed distances from the county seats of Dover and Waverly.

This publication is one of three re-prints of portions of Houston County newspapers published before 1900. The information comes from microfilm processed by the TENNESSEE ARCHIVES. Where did these newspapers come from? Who knows. The advertisements are reproduced as they were printed and the news was re-typed as it is almost impossible to read without a magnifying glass in many cases. Much of the news was, as it is today, from outside the area: preacher's sermons, short stories, president's and governor's messages, etc. If you wish to read the papers in their entirety, the microfilm is available at the Houston County Library, Erin, Tenn. All of the typographical errors were made by Nina Finley and in NO WAY should reflect on the work of Houston County Printing, Erin, Tenn. My typewriter does not have "spell-checker" and at times it doesn't spell too well.

YELLOW FEVER IN ERIN

The deaths from yellow fever since our last have been three: M.M.Stanfill died at 6 o'clock, Tuesday morning, C.S.Humphrey, our Circuit Court Clerk, died at 2:30 a.m. on Fri., and Mrs. M.M.Stanfill at 5:30 p.m. Sat. The total number of deaths to date has been seven, besides one or two in the country. The sick at present in town are Mrs. G.E.Rauscher, Ira Rauscher, Mrs. G.W.Simpson, Mrs. Klein, Dick Rushing, Randall Hankins, Walter Hagler and M.F.Shelton. The last named has remittent fever. Rushing, Hankins and Hagler are convalescent and will be out soon. In addition to these we have had a number of cases of intermittent and remittent fevers, all of which have recovered. At Arlington, Ed Schreiber is the only positive case of yellow fever in convalescent. I.F.McMillan, Mike Kelly and son are sick. Their cases are said to be remittent and intermittent fevers. In the country a short distance from town we have Misses Polly Richardson and Sue Love, refugees from Erin, both of whom were doing well at last accounts. In addition to these, there are quite a number of sick in the country, in this vicinity, though we do not know the disease in the various cases.

LATER:

The gloom which for several weeks has been hanging like a pall over our usually lively town is not about to disappear. This morning we have a frost that is equal to a young snow with considerable ics scattered around. If there is any virtue in frost we are certainly safe now from any further spread of the disease. At the hour of going to press, Mrs. G.W.Simpson is reported dying, and all the other cases are improving. While we mourn over those who are gone, a gloom is today lifted from our people as all feel that the end is here and that our grevous burden is about to be lifted from us.

George O'Bar of this place was killed at Drake Creek bridge on the L & N R.R. Thursday night of last week. The engine ran off the track and George and Mr. Thos. Strother, the engineer, were both killed. His remains were brought to this place for interment. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

For the speedy and certain cure of all malarial diseases, no medicine has been invented to equal Dr. C.P.Duncan's Chill Tonic. Contains NO arsenic, strychnine or quinine. It purifies and builds the blood—For sale at SIZEMORE & BURGIE

LOCALS

Arlington caught it in spite of the quarantine

It followed the refugees to the country and attacked them there.

Rev. J.H.Reynolds was appointed by the Conf. to the Erin and Cumberland City circuit.

Rev. A. Wells will preach at Byron Forge Sun. at 10:00 o'clock a.m. and at Erin at 3:00 p.m.

S.D.Power and G.W.McQuary, candidates for the legislature, addressed the people at Arlington last Monday week

A limestone quarry in not a sure detraction. We have had cases in a few yards of Fred Williams' lime kiln and quarry.

The yellow fever here has been choosy in its victims and has taken from our community some of our very best citizens.

If our country friends will bring in butter, eggs chickens, etc., they can dispose of them without any trouble.

The sincere thanks of our community are given to Clarksville for her generous offers of assistance in our time of affliction.

F.H.Campbell, agent at this place, returned Thursday night and has resumed his position here. We are glad to see him back.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Ed Moore, which occurred at the residence of his father on Guices' Creek last Tuesday night.

There are several candidates for the appointment as Circuit Court Clerk, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of C.S.Humphreys.

Drs. Summers and Bibb remained with us as long as their services were needed. A grateful people will ever hold them in kindest thought.

The county seat has been moved to this place, and from and after the first Monday in Nov. all the courts of the county will be held here.

Mr. V.R.Harris has qualified as administrator of C.S.Humphreys and Dr. J.P.Grigsby and Mr. G.E. Rauscher as administrator of M.M.Stanfill.

At the meeting of the County Court on the first Monday, R.C.Rushing was elected County Trustee to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of S.T.Allen.

At the primary election in Dist. 3, this county, Cal. House received every vote except two. S.M.Wilson, Esq., was elected as delegate to the Congressional Convention.

Drs. Sizemore and Nichols, both of whom were confined to bed for a few days, are again out and attending to their professional business. Neither case was yellow fever.

J.S.Lee, Clerk and Commissioner, will sell the Uffelman farm, on Wells Creek, to the highest bidder, on Saturday, Nov. 16th. The sale will take place at the Court house door in Erin.

Clarksville has a fine military company called the Clarksville City Guards. They drill Tues. and Fri. evening. Cannot Erin parade a company? Now that she is a county seat it is time she was putting on style.

Erin will ever be grateful to Pres. Longstaff and the other officers, members and physicians of the Howard Association who visited us with the "Relief Train" last week. The best wishes of our entire community will ever attend them.

On Friday night last week, I.B.Haskins, formerly of this city as conductor, was killed by an overhead bridge between Nashville and Eddwood.

The Howard Relief Train, under charge of Dr. Hunter visited us Tuesday night, leaving nurses and such supplies as were needed for the sick. These trains sent out by the Howards of Memphis, on the various roads, have been the means of good.

While some of our people have fallen short of their duty during our time of trouble, yet in no instance have any of our sick or dead lacked for the kindest and closest attention and yet we have had the services of but one paid nurse and she was sent to the country as soon as it was found she was needed here.

HOUSTON COUNTY REVIEW.

VOLUME II

THIS, TENNESSEE, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1879

NUMBER 21

W.J. Broadbuss, Editor & Publisher

From this date all connection of Mr. John L. Duff with this paper ceases. He has sold out his interest in it to the undersigned, who becomes sole proprietor and editor. This step Mr. Duff has been compelled to take on account of ill health. He parts with his old patrons with feelings of profound regret, which, we have no doubt will be reciprocated. In again making his respectful congee before the patrons of the REVIEW, the undersigned can only say that, in the future, as in the past, no effort shall be spared to make the REVIEW a readable, reliable weekly newspaper, Respectfully, W.J. Broadbuss.

Two or three bids have been received on the proposed new Methodist church building, and our citizens will probably very soon be gratified with the sight of the walls thereof rising from the ground "to meet the sun in his coming"

Late Thursday evening a broken rail was discovered on the railroad in Messrs. Lockart & Boone field. Flagmen were immediately sent to warn approaching trains of the danger and owing to their promptness in attending to the matter, there was no accident.

John W. McDonald, Esq., our Circuit Clerk, and his family moved in on Tuesday to the house formerly occupied by W.C. Settle. We welcome John to the town and neighborhood and commend him and excellent family to the citizens.

On Thursday last Messrs. J.G. Joseph, G.B. Wilson, James O'ahan, F.G. Williams and A.C. Davis paid our town a visit and organized a Lodge of "Wise Men". The Lodge starts with a goodly number of members and is destined to grow largely here. A more genial and clever set of gentlemen than the above cannot be gotten together and hope this will not be their last visit to Erin.

Work on Dr. Nichols' house is being pushed forward rapidly and it will soon be completed.

A. MOORE & CO.'s new store is being rapidly completed and will soon have a local habitation.

See non-resident notice of J.L. McMillan, in the case of John Chambers vs John Hutchinson and others in another column Quarterly meeting commences here today at 11:00 o'clock. Rev. R.P. Jones, P.E. will conduct the meeting. Services tonight and tomorrow.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of C.J. Thomas in another column. John means business, and you will save money by calling on him.

We learn that W.R. Cooley will soon be commencing a building for his business house between the new house being put up by A. Moore & Co. and the one at present occupied by that firm.

Last week, a young man by the name of Sinks was attacked with what was supposed to be smallpox. Immediately everybody was vaccinated and on Wednesday last, the patient was carried back to his home on White Oak. There have been no new cases to date.

FROM THE CLARKSVILLE TOBACCO LEAF—Perhaps no city in the State entertains the TRAMP population with so much open handed hospitality as Clarksville. A committee, usually chosen from the police force, is sent out to meet these distinguished visitors and they are escorted to headquarters and after a speech of welcome by Judge Jackson, they are extended further courtesies by the police force and with hoe and shovel that have a chance to see the principal streets of the city. The tramps, being generally modest men complain that "you do them honor overmuch" However, it is a thrifty example well worthy of imitation. We hope Judge Harthan will likewise extend to them the hospitalities of Erin, through our most polite and efficient town marshal, J. Kirk Trotter. It would be a cheap way of improving our streets.

We are enlarging the REVIEW soon into a seven column newspaper. To meet the additional outlay, the new price will be $1.50 per annum

NOTICE

All persons indebted to the estate of M.M. Stanfill dec'd are hereby notified to come forward promptly and pay up or the claims will be placed in the hands of collecting officers. All those holding claims against the estate will please present them, properly authenticated. G.E. Rauscher, Adm.

STOP THE PAIN—Cramp Colic, Diarrhea, Flux and all afflictions of the stomach and bowels can be relieved by using Dr. Duncan's Liniment. It never fails to cure headache, toothache, rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains, and bruises in man. Also colic, bots and sweeny can be cured in horses. For sale by SIZEMORE & BURGIE

FARM AND HOME HINTS

A handy thing to have in the house is a jar or bottle of lime-water. Pour water over unslacked lime and cork up for use. A spoonful of clean liquid stirred into milk, cream or bread sponge in danger of souring, will prevent that catastrophe. It also cleanses bottles, etc. that have an unpleasant odor. A person who needs milk but whose digestion is so weak as not to manage it, will find no inconvenience if into a glass of the lacteal fluid is stirred a wineglass of lime-water. The difference in the taste is not much.

To clean gilt frames take sufficient flour of sulphur to give a golden tinge to one and one half pints of water; poil in this water four or five onions, strain, and when cold-wash with a soft brush any part that requires restoring when dry it will come out as good as new.

Wire ropes newly tarred or greased have about 40 percent less rigidity than untarred rope.

Charring or pointing timber is highly injurious to any but seasoned lots, as it effectually prevents the drying of the inner part of the wood in consequence of which fermentation and decay soon takes place.

Filling for checked ceiling-whiting mixed with glue water, or calcined plaster and water makes a good putty for filling cracks in plaster.

To keep rats out of the house-Keep the house as clear as possible of these pests. If they will not enter the traps set for them, drop a little oil of sodium on the traps and that will attract them without fail.

Carbonate of soda wet and applied externally to the bite of a spider will neutralize the poison.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

John W. McDonald as candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk
 R.M.Eckles as a candidate for Sheriff
 T.A.Bunnell as a candidate for Sheriff

LOCALS

Coon skins and scrap iron are legal tenders in Erin at present

Pitching horseshoes is the leading pastime of the Erin Resting Club.

The review once more calls upon its patrons who are in arrears, come forward and pay up.

Mr. A.B.Pope's new stove factory and sawmill soon will be in operation at Stewart Station.

Mr. W.R.Cooley has sold out his saloon, opposite the Central Hotel, to Mrs. Nannie Welch of Clarksville, Tenn.

Mr. S.D.Dillon paid the REVIEW office a visit this week, and left an order of job work, Thanks friend Dillon

Mr. V.R.Harris is out on a scout for sore purpose Look out farmers, Harris will buy something from you if you give him a chance

Mr. T.A.Bunnell has been in town every day this week attending to official duties. He is a good officer and attends strictly to business

Read the advertisement of Mr. S.W.Cooley's mill in this issue. This is a good mill and will do good work. He asks a share of public patronage.

Mr. R.M.Eckles comes before the public as a candidate for Sheriff at the election in August. Bob is a good businessman and will make a good officer.

Candidates are beginning to fly around lately but as yet only three have announced themselves Come forward and lets hear from you Miss S.E.Gilmore, of Stewart Station, the handsome and accomplished niece of our friend and fellow townsman, Mr. John W. McDonald, is visiting friends and relatives in Erin.

Mr. Jap Stanfill has removed his saloon and family grocery to the old Moore stand, next door to the W.R.Reynolds saloon. Jap still keeps a good assortment of everything. Call and see him.

We call attention of our readers to the announcement of Mr. John W. McDonald as a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk. Mr. McDonald is too well known in this county to need any comment from us.

Stanfill has just received a new lot of groceries, consisting in part of the following: peaches, pears, blackberries, raspberries, strawberries, cherries, salmon, currants, kraut, pigs feet fellies, Yamouth corn, tomatoes, and many other things.

Mr. S.W.Crockett, of the Dover Courier, paid our sanctum a short visit on last Thursday evening. He reports a great deal of sickness in Stewart County.

Last week we called attention to the Western Farmer's Almanac, published by John P. Morton & Co. of Louisville, Ky. It is needless to say that it is the best Almanac published.

There will be a Sunday School organized at the church in this place tomorrow (Sunday) noon at 9 o'clock. Let everybody attend. We have needed something of the kind for some time and if the interest is taken as it should be, we are sure it will result in such good

W.J.Stanfill has moved his stock of groceries, etc., into the Hagler store house where he will be pleased to see all his old friends and customers and the public generally. He will sell the best of goods at the lowest price.

The firm of W.S.McReynolds & Son, of Clarksville has changed to McReynolds, Donnelly & Co.They are extending their facilities, and are doing good work. When you need anything in the way of building material, roofing, etc., give them an order.

Mr. N.O.Thomas having resigned the position of the Union Express agent at this place, Mr.F.H. Campbell has accepted the office. We are sure Mrs. Campbell will make a good agent.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Henry Foster to Vera Verhook
 T.H.Went to Nerva Pulley
 Jerry Watson to Isabel Watson (2nd time)
 J.W. Thompson to Luella Willson
 James D Powers to A.M. Jyle
 Henry Turner to Adelle Taylor.

On last Sunday near Mr. Pollard's spring on Wells Creek, a desperate fight occurred between Charlie Buger, Robt. Pollard, a boy named Marsh and a dog on the one part, and a full grown fox on the other part, resulting in the wounding of the boy and the death of the fox. The fox had been run by the dog and was making his way into the spring which runs out of the hill side, when he was captured by the boys named, neither of whom is more than nine years old. They at once formed a line of battle and charged on the fox with sticks and stones and succeeded in killing it. Marsh was bitten by the fox which was all the damage sustained by the victorious party.

MARRIED

On the 27th at the residence of the bride's bro., Dr. Samuel Wilson of Tennessee Ridge by the Rev. J.H. Garrett, Dr. W.B. Scott of Stewart County to Miss A.E. Wilson of Houston County. We extend to the happy couple our best wishes.

At the residence of John Byer, on the 21st, by Rev. J.H. Garrett, Mr. William Gerson to Mrs. Mary Shanlessey. All of Stewart Co.

DANGER IN PROVERBS

The proverb, "Never put off till tomorrow what may be done today" has gotten me into indelibly trouble. It was about the first thing my school teacher told me, and when I took my vacation on Friday, instead of putting it off till Saturday, I was arranged in an uncomfortable position over that school master knee and paddled in a manner that I thought should have been put off till next day.

The more I see of this life the more I am satisfied of the danger of proverbs in general; and particular of this one. Why, last week, when Elias Dufrey's first wife died and he buried her that afternoon and married the widow Gushington, before sundown, I declare the very people who never put off till tomorrow what might be done today, said it was an outrage to society, and talked of building a superstructure of tar and feathers on him.

A woman quarreling with her husband told him she believed if she was to die he would marry the devil's eldest daughter. "The law does not allow a man to marry two sisters," replied the husband.

DEAR EDITOR: If you will give me a small space of your valuable paper, I will speak a few words in regard to those institutions called clubs—NOT THE ERIN RESTING CLUB—but the clubs that are founded on eating and drinking, and where most men can agree, and in which the learned and illiterate can all bear a part, and of course, cards and billiards must enter into the recreation. There must be some great attraction which can draw a set of gentlemen from their homes and all other engagements and hold them together to a late hour. If it is social reading, the authors may be flattered with the honors paid them; if it is conversation, the talkers must have rare conversations powers; if it is politics, the country must have zealous patriots among her sons; if it is science, no wonder the lightning lends its wing to knowledge. I am bound to say I do not believe club houses are schools of science. They make no man a better husband or father and have many a young wife to water her pillow with tears, and have kept many a widowed mother walking her parlor in lonely anguish till after midnight awaiting the return of her wayward son from the card table. They seduce good and noble men into the habits of intemperance and gambling. If some have visited them without being contaminated, it is more than can be said of most. They have inspired many a man with a disrelish for his home. They are a sort of a rival home to the home they occupy. I do not bring against these clubs a wholesale denunciation; I neither say not believe that all who belong to them are men who neglect their homes; I cannot doubt but they comprise individually not only of high social standing, but of great personal worth. Let me say to you, you are setting a bad example when you are there, and if you would guard your homes as you would your altars, stay away from the clubs and bar rooms, for Satan is there, ready and waiting to seduce you. Perhaps you cannot see him, but he is there in the shape of something to drink. Rum dealer, think of this. Can you say, in the presence of our Creator "I never dealt out damnation to my fellow man. Think of this before you go to sleep tonight.

SPECIAL NOTICE—The invention of that Superior and complete Sewing Machine (THE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE) marks one of the most important eras in the history of machinery, and when we consider its great usefulness and extremely low price, $25, it is very difficult to conceive of any invention for domestic use of more or even equal importance to families. AGENTS WANTED—Contact FAMILY SEWING MACHINE CO., 755 Broadway, N.Y., N.Y.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

The oyster crop of the North promises to be a failure this year due largely to the late cold winter. In Chesapeake Bay the ice froze over the oysters suffocating many of them.

Large numbers of letters have been received at the office of the United States Treasury continuing applications for the August quarterly interest rate of 5 per cent.

The drouth in North Texas continues. No rain has fallen since the first of July.

It is doubtful whether the public schools of Memphis will open before November 1st.

From the extraordinary increase of revenue from cigarets the Washington Republic properly infers that the number of youths who should be taken across their mother's knees and soundly spanked increased during the last fiscal year at least a quarter of a million.

Teach your children that alcohol is a fiend. Take them to the penitentiary, almshouse and morgue, show them the victims and explain how the ruin was caused.

Dr. Little, the state geologist of Georgia expresses the opinion that there is more gold at the bottom of the rivers in north Georgia than has been taken out of that region since the gold mining began.

Ex-Gov. Stover of New Mexico says that with 100 hand picked men from each county the Apache Indian problem can be settled in 30 days.

Mr. N.O. Thomas, Erin's boss merchant, has a full stock of seed potatoes, garden seeds of all descriptions, plows, string and summer goods, and the largest dry goods establishment in the place. Call and see him

A good, new bakery, situated in front of the Central Hotel, in Erin. For information concerning price—address W.R. Cooley, Erin, TN

The wedding of our friend, Mr. William Beard to Miss Ada Nichols was one of the nicest affairs it has been our happy lot to witness in many years. Many friends and relatives were present to witness the nuptials. The table was laden with the choicest food and delicacies, with which the most fastidious could not find the least fault. We wish the young couple a happy voyage through life. May they never live to regret their choice but ever live in the enjoyment of a happy home.

On Thursday night, the ladies of Erin, will give a supper for the benefit of the new church. The festival will be held in the church. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock, opening by prayer, music and remarks. After supper, all can enjoy themselves as pleases them best. Com out, all. Admission only 50 cent for adults, and children over 10 is 25 cents.

Mr. W.J. Stanfill dies at his residence in this place, of general debility, on Thursday morning last at 2 o'clock after an illness but a few days. Aged about 33 years. His death casts a gloom over the community, as every one feels that a good citizen, true and good friend, and influential gentleman has left this mode of existance to seek a home in boundless eternity. Mr Stanfill leaves a wife and child to mourn his loss.

A dance at the Central Hotel was one of the gayest affairs of the season. Those who were in attendance pronounced it the best they have ever witnessed in Erin. Mr. Myers, the ever polite and accommodating host did all in his power to make the party enjoyable. All present seemed well satisfied with the results.

The wide-awake and energetic firm of Moore & Co have now the most complete assortment of goods in the city. Their new house is nicely arranged, and they are prepared to wait on customers without inconvenience.

In this issue may be found the card of J.G. Robbins attorney and counsellor at law. He has permanently located in Erin and asks a share of public patronage. Mr. Robbins is a clever, high-toned gentleman, well versed in his profession and will promptly attend to all business entrusted to him.

In our last issue, we represented Mr. R.A. Crocker candidate for sheriff as being in the Federal Army. This was a mistake, for he was in the Confederate army. Our informant misrepresented the matter to us, and we are sorry the error occurred. We therefore take this method of begging the gentleman's pardon and setting him right before the people.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethern of Charity Lodge No. 576
Your committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Brother John I Allman who departed this life at Dardenella, Ark

The young men of Erin gave a grand social hop at the Central Hotel, friday evening. It was a lively affair. All participated freely in the exercises and seemed to enjoy themselves hugely. Invitations were extended to our neighboring towns and we were pleased to notice several young ladies and gentlemen from Clarksville, danville, Curb. City and several other places in attendance. The committee on arrangements procured the services of a Louisville band and the music was first-class. Before closing, I would mention that the boys were out on a serenade Saturday night. They retired early though and did not disturb the Sabbath.

To keep ice, make a double pocket of woolen cloth, no matter how coarse and faded it is. Have a space of two inches or so between the inner and outer pockets and pack this space as full as possible with feathers. You have no need to use geese feathers—hen's feathers are just as good. With a pocket thus constructed and kept closely tied at the mouth, a few pounds of ice may be kept for a week.

Fall fights set in the third day of this month. The parties engaged were Mr. John Dean and Mr. Ben Patterson. The particulars are about as follows: Patterson was drunk and was using very bad and boisterous language out back of the stores on the square. Mr. Dean happened to be passing and told Patterson in a friendly way that he had better quit swearing and cutting up on the streets that some one would arrest him. This enraged Patterson at Dean so he began cursing and abusing him. Dean left him and walked into a store and was followed by Patterson who had his knife open in his hand and was swearing vengeance on Dean. Dean left him a second time telling him he wanted no fuss. Patterson followed Dean to the back door of Harris & Bugno store and invited him out. Dean and him fought. Dean hit at Patterson several times before he felled him but when he did fall—great was the fall. Dean gave it to him pretty lively by choking, kicking and pounding until Patterson hollered "muff" several times. Dean was arrested, tried and released without a fine, which was exactly in accordance with the wishes of every man in town. Patterson was fined $9.00 Mr. Dean was oold sober and was defending himself. Patterson too full of "bust-head"

WINTERSMITH'S Tonic Syrup or Chill Cure

A Certain Cure for every form of Fever and Ague. The Cure is Permanent. The Chill once broken will not return.

THIS preparation has all the virtues of quinine, without any of the disagreeable effects. All who have had Chills and Fever and have taken quinine, calomel or arsenic (which are the principal ingredients of most of the medicines now in use) are aware that the medicines often leave the system in an unhealthy condition, making it more difficult to relieve it of their effects than of the original disease. Wintersmith's Improved Chill Cure leaves the system in a perfectly healthy condition, with no bad effects in any way to be worried. Unlike chill removers generally, it requires no purgative to be taken with it, the medicine itself acting gently and agreeably upon the liver and bowels, effectually removing the cause of the disease, not merely temporarily checking it.

HOUSTON COUNTY REMINISCENCES by ploxybo

Mr. Editor: If you are inclined to be skeptical to that tale in my last letter about catching wolves in a pen, let me advise you to test the matter philosophically by experiment. The only trouble in this will be to find a hillside with an inclination of about 450 degrees. If you can't find one about Erin, go down to New Portland and you can be accommodated. Take your position standing with face up hill, then pause a moment, collect all your muscular power and activity and with an extraordinary effort, jump as far as you can up the hill, mark the place, then face about and, with the same effort jump as far as you can down the hill. Now, the difference in these distances will be that much in favor of catching the wolf.

I must here tell you about a turkey hunt and how it ended. One of those sharp shooting "still hunters" concluded that he would like to have a gobbler for dinner the next day, so he loaded his rifle that night and put his turkey call in his shot pouch. At break of day he started and continued along a bushy ridge till daylight without discovering a turkey. Then he espied something beyond in a turn in the path, coming to meet him.

Having turkey on the brain, he thought sure it was one and instantly stepped behind a small tree with his rifle to his face. As the game darkened the sight of the gun, fired, but much to his surprise the turkey disappeared in the thicket. He first reloaded his rifle and then measured the distance to the place by counting the steps, finding it only 45 yards. He was sure he had not missed his aim but he could not find a feather. After thinking over the matter a little, he determined to make a closer examination, and soon found several drops of blood on the leaves, and finally some hair which seemed to be cut from some animal.

So the wily hunter soon conjectured that instead of having missed a turkey, he had hit a wolf. Following the blood for a few yards it became so plenty that he could keep the trail at a brisk walk. After pursuing for a few hundred yards, he concluded to return to the neighborhood and gather up some hounds and renew the pursuit. Mr. George Cathy had recently moved up from Reelfoot Lake, and had brought with him a little cur which had been trained in hunting bear about the Lake. The collection included this little bear dog and about a dozen deer hounds.

The company was composed of James Wilson, James Lankford, John Lankford, Robert Holmes, George Cathy and James Wilson Esq. who had shot the game. I was then a small boy and was allowed to go with the company and ride the "old bay". The dogs were kept back until we were near the place and all were permitted to go forward except the bear dog. They soon struck the trail and were off in full cry and we followed them in great haste and much confusion occurred over the hills, across the ravines and through the dense thickets of briars and bushes for almost two miles. We found then "at bay" and backed against a large log was a huge wolf. The wolf's eyes looked almost as red as live coals and upon his countenance was the most savage look that I had ever seen, showing it's dangerous mouth full of teeth

WELDING BELLS—On Wednesday evening at seven o'clock the big bell at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church began to ring forth a merry and joyous peal to announce that something unusual was about to happen. A large audience of the citizens of all sizes, ages and sexes hurried for the church to witness the nuptial ceremonies that united one of Erin's favorite sons with one of her favorite daughters. Soon the house was filled to overflowing and the bridegroom, Mr. Tom H. Allen, with his lovely bride, Miss Nannie O'Bar arrived at 5 o'clock attended by Mr. W.L. Rauscher and Miss Leslie Allman and Mr. James Atkinson and Miss Nannie Broadbuss. The knot was quickly tied by Rev. A.M. Taylor and the wedding party and a few friends repaired to the residence of the bride aunt, Mrs. Jane Rushing where refreshments were provided.

AN ENTERPRISING DEALER—Mrs. J.F.Wood, of Clarksville, has a display advertisement in this issue to which we call the attention of our readers. Mr. Wood is a prompt, reliable, enterprising business man and we bespeak for him a liberal share of the public patronage.

THE CENTRAL TO BE OPENED APRIL 1st—Mr. Thos. Mahoney has leased the Central Hotel at this place and will, on or about April 1st move into and furnish this grand hotel. He was driven to this step because the Partridge House was too small to accommodate his increasing patronage. We are glad that this elegant place of property is no longer to remain idle and hope Mr. Mahoney will bring it up to its former character, that is the best hotel on the road. The Partridge House is to be occupied by Mr. M.F.Shelton, Sr. as a residence

LATE NEWS ITEMS

Forty thousand acres of land in Arkansas have been secured for an Italian colony. About a thousand Italians have already settled in that section.

Col. Moberly, of Missouri, has told a reporter that Jesse James deserved killing and endorses the action of Goc Crettenden and says he did exactly right.

Twenty-five hundred head of merion sheep recently arrived in Tyler, Texas from Ohio

There are over 1,000 insane people in Texas and only 350 in the asylum.

Thomas McEwen, a special deputy sheriff at Murfreesboro, Tenn. has killed his third man-a horse thief named Bethel Thompson, who wired upon him while he was reading a warrant for his arrest.

HOUSTON COUNTY REMINISCENCES No. 9-Plow boy I will now tell you about the old time custom of "burning out" the teacher. This was generally done on a holiday or the last day of school.

All the male part of the school world would assemble early in the morning before the teacher's arrival, or take advantage of his absence from the house at noon, and bar up the door and windows (If there were any-most school houses had no windows) and keep him out until he would come to terms.

The terms were usually a jug of whiskey, or a candy stew, or a bag of ginger cakes. In justice to the times it must be said that the whiskey was not always required. If the teacher seemed stubborn and refused to "come to terms" then the larger boys would rush upon him and capture him as their prisoner and threaten him with some penalty until he would submit to their terms. The teacher generally was very stubborn and refused to the last. If by any bad management they let the teacher get in the house, they were defeated for the day and had to submit to the authority of the teacher and resume their studies.

There was a school taught at Lewis Branch near where Widow Crosswell now lives, by a little man by the name of Hudson. The boys agreed upon a plot to turn out the teacher on Christmas Day. Hudson had taught school before and was experienced in all parts of the business. As he approached the house on Christmas morning, he was met by a delegation of the boys who handed him a polite note demanding a treat, and informed him that a refusal would be followed with a penalty of a ducking in Lewis Branch. Hudson politely declined and the boys persuaded and then threatened him if he did not come to their terms but all was in vain.

Finally the larger boys made a sudden rush at him, but he was too quick for them and the ranch over brush and logs was close for about 1/4 mile when they overtook and overpowered him and carried him to a basin in the branch near the school house. The bank was perpendicular and about 6 or 7 feet high and the water was as deep as the bank was high and the ice was about 1/2 inch thick. The boys (Crosswells, Irvins, Browns and others) were standing on the bank holding Hudson in a horizontal position with his head down, swinging him back and forth threatening to plunge him in unless he would treat. Just at this moment Dr. Crosswell rode up, dismounted and threw his bridle over a stump. One of his legs had been injured in his youth from white-swelling and left him very lame for life. As he advanced he said, "B-B-Bo-Boys, Wh-Wh-Wha-What, now? "A treat Dr., a treat." "We-we-well, let me help you." and seizing Hudson by the feet, and as the boys gave a swing toward the stream shoved with all his might and the whole posse were precipitated into the ice water. The Doctor lost no time in hobbling to his horse and galloping down the road, and thinking he was out of danger he checked his horse and was riding leisurely. To his surprise two of the boys were at his sides. One made a spring at his leg and the other at his horse's bridle. By a quick application of his spur he just did escape. The boys followed him two miles before they abandoned the chase. They returned in a storm of passion, and giving utterance to terrible imprecations of vengeance.

The Doctor found it convenient to spent Christmas week in the neighborhood on the lower part of White Oak.

I think it is well that this practice has long since been abandoned. I have seen difficulties grow out of it. On one occasion, the teacher took a running start for the door, but by a sudden turn deceived the boys who had all gathered about the door, and scaling the end of the house, mounted the roof and quickly made an opening in the roof and descended into the house between a very heavy writing desk and the wall. A powerful struggle followed, it was like overturning a six-horse wagon. The great, heavy desk, teacher and all tumbled together near the middle of the house. One of the boys closed a rope to tie the teachers hands. The teacher began to work on them in earnest with his knife—trying to cut the rope. Another student thought it best in this emergency to cut the rope. This made it all satisfactory. Terms were agreed upon and two boys were dispatched for a bag of ginger bread and a feast closed the exercises for the day. This occurred in 1840 or 50 in the neighborhood near where Danville is now.

THE POST OFFICE

On Thursday, last, Mr. N.O. Thomas, who has been the faithful post-master at this place since the town was named, was called upon to deliver the office belonging to Mr. George E. Rauscher. The cause of Thomas being turned out was a piece of information sent to the department from this burg. It will be remembered that it has only been a short time since Rauscher, of his friends attempted to rid Mr. Thomas of his office by popularity. It will also be remembered that it was then done in a "sneaking" undermining way. Instead of consulting Mr. Thomas, they got up a petition and secretly circulated it among only those that they thought were "Thomas" enemies or to those upon whom some of them had a "hold". In the rounds the "black sheet" was presented to the wrong man by mistake and the whole thing was "given away" and some of Mr. Thomas' friends, without being asked to do so, got up a contra-petition and in less than two hours there were more names on Thomas' petition than had been obtained on the other in nearly a week. It was then that they found that they had made a mistake. They had no charges that could be sustained against Mr. Thomas, it was abandoned for the time. A few weeks since Mr. Thomas received the follow letter from the department:

Washington D.C.—March 23, 1862

Dear Sir: It is alleged that you are notorious for your ultra Democratic principles and efforts against the Republican party. G.E. Rauscher is recommended for appointment. This information is communicated to you in order that you may have an opportunity of answering and any evidence you may be pleased to offer in disproof of the above will be carefully considered. Very respectfully, James R. Man, Acting First Assistant P.M.G.

We have tried to get a copy of the information that caused the above to be written but have failed. We learned, however, that several of the most highly respectable Republicans (whos names we are prepared to furnish if necessary) refused to sign the information because it was a libel. We don't know who was the "daddy" of that information but we learn that it was badly written and badly composed and, when seen by a reporter, had the name of one man on it. It is not an account of the amount of remuneration that the office gives that is causing Thomas and his friends (and he has more friends than any one man in the county of Houston) to kick, it is the manner in which an unfair advantage was gained. The office being obtained in the manner in which it was will gain for Thomas a trade that will be worth twice the emoluments of the office and it will not all come from the Democrats either for there are some honest, conscientious men in the Republican party who will not help to build up a man who would accept any office or appointment gained by fraud even when it is thrust upon him uncollected, as we believe the office was thrust upon Mr. Rauscher without personal solicitation from him.

We believe Mr. Rauscher (whom we entertain no ill will) will lose more than he will gain by the transaction even should he retain the office which we believe, hope and trust he will fail to do after the present administration. Some people will say that the REVIEW should not deal in little home matters do forcefully but we are running a little home paper, and expect to speak out on little home matters if it pleases or displeases. Had the removal of Mr. Thomas been placed upon purely political grounds, that is to say, because Mr. Thomas was a Democrat (which Mr. Thomas does not deny) and his successor was a Republican, we should have very little to say. Such removals, though always of more than doubtful expediency in small offices like the present, have always occurred and always will occur, perhaps, as long as peoples are constituted as they are now. But it is due alike to the public and to Mr. Thomas that the former should be informed of the actual grounds of his removal so that it may be seen that no serious charges have been made against his official character and no complaints lodged with the department in any way affecting his conduct as an honest and faithful officer. The foregoing letter fully explains itself and places the matter in proper light. It will be seen that Mr. Thomas must have been represented in the department as an officious and meddling partisan. Everybody that knows Thomas knows that this charge is untrue and that lies have been told. It is an old adage that "the mills of the gods grind slow but sure". If Mr. Thomas' enemies expect to derive much benefit, wither to themselves or their party, by having outdone an opponent upon a representation which is untrue.

Several young gentlemen from this place went up to Clarksville to see Coop's Show Tuesday and with one accord, pronounced it the poorest circus that ever owned a tent. A new depot filled the deficiency, though.

Messrs. Moore & Atkinson, former merchants at this place, who recently moved to Hall's Creek in Humphreys County, made an assignment of their entire property to Mr. N.O. Thomas this week

Mr. G.D. Outlaw was in town Monday and told a reporter that he caught, one day last week, two fish in the Tennessee River, with hook and line, one of which, a cat, weighed 57 pounds and the other, a sturgeon, measuring over five feet in length and weighing 25 pounds. It would seem that should furnish fish to the guests at the "Outlaw Hotel".

NOTES & NOTES

Five hundred Apaches from the San Carlos area reservation have gone on the warpath

The accounts of Gov. Churchill, of Arkansas, while serving as State Treasurer, are found to be short about $125,000

Pink-eye has appeared among the horses of New York and one sales stable reports the loss of two or three head per day for the past fortnight

In the city of Ramezetz, Russia, having a population of 22,000. The shops and houses of all Jews were destroyed by incendiary fires, the loss being $500,000 rebies.

The rangers have captured two of the Texas & Pacific train robbers and killed a third. The bloodhounds ran them into a canyon near the Brazos River, where they showed fight.

California working men have resolved to boycott the Chinese and all who deal with them and pledge themselves to resist the landing of those who came after reasonable notice has been given.

An Indian who had threatened the life of a prominent farmer, and was a bad man generally, was taken from a constable at Stony Creek, thirty miles west of Caluso, Calif. the other day and hanged.

Frank McManus, aged 40, in jail at Minneapolis Minn, for brutally assaulting a four-year old girl was hanged by excited citizens. He was taken to the home of his victim, where he was identified and then strung up in front of the school. He confessed his terrible crime. The little girl lies in critical condition

Advances confirm the reported scalping of Gatelyville, Ariz. citizens. They was a massacre of some thirty whites by red-skins

E.N. Woodward, a San Francisco dentist dangerously wounded Millie Woodward, with whom he had been intimate, and then fatally shot himself. The cause was jealousy and refusal of the woman to become his wife.

The manufacture of canoes and curiosities is one of the leading industries of Jacksonville, Fla., furnishing employment to a greater number of persons than any other branch of business in the city. The shape of almost any creature has been manufactured into articles of jewelry for personal use or adornment. The trade of alligators is also large. One concern has sold over 800 alligators this season.

THEM INDIANS—The Apaches have been again seized with a natural but irresistible desire to take scalps of some of the rascals who have been selling them, in the name of authority of Uncle Samuel's government, green-fly beef, bust-head whiskey, decayed mackerel, mouldy cheese and flour, sanded sugar. The treatment extended to these poor Indians by those thieving wretches is a constant disgrace to the American name.

Mr. Jesse E. Broome, formerly of this place later of Water Valley, Miss., came up Tue. evening to spend several days with friends at his old home. We hope he will have a pleasant visit.

Mr. Thomas, Democratic postmaster at Erin, has been "removed" and Mr. Rauscher, Republican, has been appointed in his stead.

Our neighbors at Erin are somewhat exercised over the fact that their Democratic postmaster was displaced by a Republican. They shouldn't expect anything else from the administration now in power. Remember friends, "none but stalwarts need apply." We found that out not long ago at Milan. Why a good a good sound Republican tried to get the office here we don't know. MILAN EXCHANGE.

Died of meningitis, on Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock, Louise, infant daughter of J.M. and Bettie Harris, aged about 14 months. This little sufferer has at last been released from a protracted and agonizing struggle with disease, which she bore with heroic fortitude, and is now resting beyond the river under the shade of the trees. The funeral was preached by Rev. Brother A.M.Taylor at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at 2 o'clock p.m.

DEMOCRATS AND FRIENDS OF HARMONY, BE ON YOUR GUARD. WATCH THE CORNERS AND BEWARE OF SHARP TRICKS.

It is now pretty certain that there will be no more small-pox in clarksville, the time having passed in which it would have made its appearance had any one else been inoculated with the disease from association.

Rev. F.M.Auburn will preach at ARlington the 2nd and Marvin the 3rd Sunday in each month.

FINNISH DEVILMENT

On the night of Tuesday, the 2nd last, on south bound passenger train, No. 1 was nearing Outlaw's crossing, about a mile south of Carbonale in Montgomery County, she struck an iron rail which had been placed across the track by some miserant in human shape, and came very near being derailed. There had been two rails placed in a similar position evidently with the intention of doing mischief, and the engineer had to stop his train and remove the second rail. The first one was, fortunately, thrown off by the cow catcher. The men that would thus seriously jeopardise the lives of innocent men, women and children is a wretch too vile to live, and ought to be hung as high as 11:00 a.m.

SURGERY

We are informed that our M.D.'s performed a surgical operation upon the leg of Mr. Jabez Houston on Thursday of last week. The leg was amputated just below the knee. Mr Houston had been afflicted with cancer of the bone for years and had suffered much pain. He died from the effects of this terrible disease and the amputation together on Saturday and was buried on the farm of Esq. J.L.McMillan, near ARlington, on Sunday. He could have lived but a short time had he not have resorted to amputation, but the pain had become so excruciating that he decided to risk it even against the advice of the doctors. Doctors Nichols, Edwards, Ryan, Burgie and Ellis were all present during the operation. The affected part that was taken off has been dissected and the bone is at BURGIE'S DRUG STORE.

THE ROAD TO PROSPERITY

Our county is out of debt, with a surplus of money in the treasury. The twenty miles of railroad running through it, by any fair and reasonable assessment, will pay nearly as much as the balance of the entire real estate in the county. So that our little county will, hereafter, possess great advantages over many others, so far as public burdens are concerned, and will be a cheap county to live in. In order properly to improve these advantages let our people go to work—diligently and honestly. Those who are engaged in trade add nothing to the wealth of the county. It is those who manufacture something from the raw material by putting labor upon it, that makes the county rich. Our county is on the high road to prosperity, if the people will only diligently improve the opportunities they enjoy.

ANNOUNCEMENT—Pisgah Academy—Humphreys Co., Tennessee. A school designed exclusively for the teachers will begin at Pisgah Academy near Box's Station in Humphreys County on May 23, 1882, and will continue for four weeks. The school is designed to give young ladies and gentlemen the benefit of a few weeks special training in the art of practical school management, special attention will be given to the best methods of organizing, managing and governing schools. The faculty will consist of the County Supt. and as many other teachers as the attendance may demand. The Curriculum prescribed by the "Tennessee School Law" will be the limit of our work—how to teach will be the end accomplished. Maps, charts, globes, drawings and object blocks, will be resorted to on almost every subject. Bring all your school books. Special attention will be given to geology. We will analyze several minerals before the class that it may comprehend fully the chemical composition of a few of the Tenn. rocks. Our Geological cabinet have some of the most beautiful specimens from Tennessee. Those who honorable complete the course, and are found competent, will receive a certificate of their proficiency and a letter of recommendation to school directors where they may find employment in good schools...A fee of $3.00 will be charged. Board can be had at $2 a week in advance. For further information contact, JAMES WAGGONER, Box's Sta. Humphreys County, Tennessee

There has been a slight disturbance among the different churches in Dallas, Tex., caused by a committee of the Women's Christian Temperance Union wanting the pastors to discontinue the use of fermented wines at the communion table, and giving their reason that they could hope for. The result is that many of the pastors have refused to take further part in the temperance movement.

HOUSTON COUNTY REMINISCENCES, by Plowboy—No. 11
Fifty years ago the worse of Houston County didn't have knitting, quilting and sewing machines; but they had cotton and flax perches and carding, spinning, reeling and warping and weaving machines and sold as much or more cloth and socks into the stores than they bought out of them. And much of the cotton was separated from the seed with the finger. They garded and spun as a business—as well by night as by day. Many a night have I sat on the kitchen hearth till a late hour chacking hickory nuts or walnuts and put a dry stick on the fire at intervals to keep up a "brilliant" for two spinning wheels which kept ire with a whizz—high, and then low, fast and slow alternately. They spun the warp, filling and sewing thread. They wove the cloth plain linsey or jeans, as they desired; and if they didn't want it white, they dyed it whatever color they wished to have it.

The winter clothing was made of cotton warp and woolen filling. This spun jeans and linsey was much thicker and more lasting than the factory cloth. The linsey was much thicker and better for underwear than the present factory cloth. There was more wool in one garment in those days than there is now in a whole suit; and the heaviest domestic you could find was not more than half the weight of the home-spun plain cotton.

Let me here call the attention of everyone to the important fact that the girls who wove this cotton cloth in summer and linsey and all wool stockings and every day shoes made of home-tanned leather in the winter, were far more exempt from delicate constitutions and consumption than the present generation.

Wat a poor protection is the present calico and cotton stockings and thin shoes against the inclemency of winter. A wrapper made of common newspapers (kept dry) would be warmer

Much of the course summer clothing for men and boys, and also an occasional dress suit, were made from flax. The flax was spread in swaths exposed to the weather, until it was rotted sufficiently—that's when it was put under the bark. The straw part would shatter and sift out from the lint, or bark of the stalk. The lint was then scratched. This operation separated the coarsest of the lint which was called "scotching tow" and was useful for making strong ropes and strings. This scratched lint was then hackled or combed which separated a finer quality of two from the fine lint. Of this two, working suits were made for men and boys. And if a boy climbed a stake and rode a fence or a grape tree and slipped and his clothes happened to catch on a stake or a snag, he was swung up safe enough, for there was no such thing as tearing the cloth.

This lint and two was further prepared for for spinning by winding it around a kind of frame made of a dogwood bush which had three or four limbs coming out from the main stem at the same height and on opposite side. They were cut about 18 inches long, and the top ends bent in and bound to the middle stem with a string. It had a name—and I have been scratching my head all day...but can't think of it. This was attached to the flax wheel, a small wheel made for the purpose. The operator sat on a chair and ran the machine with a treadle and let off the lint from the (can't call it yet)

Now, young ladies and gents of 1882, let me call your attention to a few significant facts which this writing reveals: All this flax and cotton and wool were raised at home and carried through the whole process of manufacturing cloth, cut and sewed into garments with the fingers, nothing being bought but the buttons. I am glad all of those primitive women are not all dead yet, I think there are several of them in Houston County. There is Mrs. Christopher Buchanan and Miss Charity O'Guin and perhaps others and we call them up as witnesses: and we will have further use for them before we are done. I believe Miss Charity sells socks in Erin every year, has money, and always has had and doesn't owe a dollar to any man. How could she not when she has made so much and brought so little? If you will try the plan you will find it is a way of getting out of debt. Debt has never disturbed her sleep.

GRAPEVINE

Don't forget to come to the convention next Monday

Col. W.H. Ressey, principal of the public school at Cedar Hill paid our sanctum a pleasant visit last Saturday.

Mr. James Connell moved his family to Paris last Sunday. He intends to make Paris his future home Harvesting time is upon us now and should remind every person of the great harvest of harvests in the dread hereafter.

Mrs. W.T. Thomas and Mrs. James M. Lewis, two amiable ladies of Omb. City were in Erin shopping last Saturday

At Waverly on Tuesday, Rev. T. Davis was arrested on the charge of rape. He was formerly an Ohio school teacher.

Dr. Ryan has purchased a fine horse and is now prepared to wait upon patients in the country, as well as in the city on short notice

Mr. George Griffin, travelling agent for the Nashville World, was in town this week. Master Charlie Buquo was appointed agent for this place

When visiting Clarksville do not fail to visit Lehman's European Hotel for good accommodations. This is the best hotel in the town and has the finest bar attached

We are unable to say whether "Ployboy" is dead out of paper or stories. We have heard nothing from him lately

No, certainly not! Editors never need money. Send a string of dried apples once in a while with a few instructions about running a paper

We want it understood by all parties that our columns are always open for any individual to respond or answer any articles that are printed.

Mr. J.M. Harris has accepted the agency for the Southern Express Company at this place and the office has been moved to the storehouse of Harris & Buquo. Mr. Harris will make a good agent and the office is in a much more suitable location, being near the center of the business part of town.

The Telephone Company has erected one telephone from the City Drug Store to the residence of Dr. Nichols. The telephone does not work as well as was expected, but will doubtless get in good working order in a short time. This will be a great convenience to the Doctor as well as his patrons, if it proves to be a success.

The Dickson Station in Dickson County, has a new depot building just completed, that is said to be quite an addition to the appearance of Dickson. Why can we not have a new depot here? The present one is very inconvenient—only one room where all classes of ruffians, ladies and gentlemen are compelled to be associated together while waiting for trains.

In this issue will be found the card of Dr. M. Ryan, physician and surgeon, at this place. He has for a number of years been engaged in the drug business here, but having recently sold out to Mr. Rauscher, has permanently located here in the practice of medicine. He is a talented young physician and a graduate and has already attained popularity in his profession. We heartily commend him to the public as a safe, reliable, accommodating physician

Adam Homburger, while on his way to Erin last Monday, killed a rattlesnake six feet and four inches in length (he said) with 30 rattlers.

Hon. H.H. Buquo, Representative of Houston and Dickson counties, made an able speech before his constituents at Erin, last night. He took the position that the settlement of the State debt at 60-3-4-5-6 was a Democratic measure, and all Democrats who desired the unity of the party should support it. Mr. Buquo is one of the ablest men in the present Legislature and it is to be regretted that he proposes not to be a candidate for re-election said the Saturday EVENING BANNER.

Last week some parties, unknown so far, entered the back yard at the Central Hotel and took a young calf, a week or two old out and killed it. The next morning it was found with several places where a knife was stuck into it. The general belief is that the thelves took it for the purpose of making food of it and were scared off by some cows which followed the bleating of the calf. Since that time we learn that a slaughter pen had been found back of Boone & Lockhart's pasture below town evidently erected for the purpose of killing some of their stock.

Every Democrat in Houston County should come out to the Convention next Monday so that the county may be fully represented at the Gubernatorial Convention. Come out and let us unite low-tax and high-tax and let the state debt alone. Unity is strength and we should get the grand old Democratic army of Tenn. together not to fight against each other but to put a stop to the Republican business in our State. Rally around the flag boys and lets clean them from the face of the earth. Don't let us get into any more disgusting wrangles and split again for this is precisely what would please the hungry horde and perpetuate the power of the Radicals in Tennessee. Let us make a long pull, a strong pull, and pull together and there won't be a greasy spot left of Hawkins and his gang after the election. The convention will meet at 2 o'clock at the court room. Let every Democrat attend.

All hard workers are subject to billous attacks which may end in dangerous illnesses. PARKER'S GINGER TONIC will keep the kidneys and liver active and by preventing the attack save much sickness, loss of time and expense.

The postmaster has written Mr. Thomas that he is authorized by the Post-Master General to notify Mr. Thomas that he, Thomas, is transgressing the law. Mr. Thomas does not know exactly to what the post master has reference unless it is mailing his letters on the train instead of putting them in the postoffice. We fail to see wherein there can be any transgression of the law in this particular, as the postal cars are post offices and any individual or class of individuals have a right to mail letters as they choose. If it is a transgression of the law, why are the route agents allowed to receive the letters and cancel the stamps? We do not know the rules regulating such cancelation, but is it that the agents on the trains receive a per cent for canceling, it certainly can not be a violation of the law for them to cancel the stamps. If they do not receive a per cent, they are paid a salary, and when a letter is mailed on the train, it is actually saving to the government of 2 cents on every letter mailed. And more, Mr. George E. Rauscher was guilty, (if it is any transgression at all to mail letters on the train, which we very seriously doubt), of the same transgression prior to the time Thomas got to be such a notorious Democrat. We would like to see the Post Master General (Simpson or Salisbury, we suppose) put his finger on the law that is transgressed. The letters will be mailed on the train "all the same".

AVAILABLE FARM FOR SALE

According to the provisions of the will of Mrs. Elizabeth Hinson, directing me as executor to sell the real estate belonging to her heirs, I will on Thursday, June 15th proceed to sell on the premises the place known as the "Magnolia Mill" property and farm lying on White Oak Creek, in Civil Dist.No. 1 of Houston Co. and containing about 296 A. The boundaries will be given on day of sale with title perfect. It is situated within 7 miles of Darville and 5 miles of the Tenn. River, is highly productive and is in a fair state of cultivation and has 2 good dwelling and good out buildings. The mill has one of the finest natural water powers in the State and is situated in the center of a vast area of fine farming country. The terms of the sale will be one third cash, one third in six months and one third on twelve month credit. The purchaser is required to execute notes with good personal security and a lien retained for the balance on the purchase money. Any other information required address—A.F.HINSON—exec—DANVILLE, TN

An old citizen of this place writes of a friend in Industry, Ill. who is very hard of hearing. He's been talking for some time of visiting Germany in the fall. I sat beside him at a meeting the other night. After the sermon was over the minister took a turn round the church, shaking hands and talking. Presently he came to the old citizen, and taking his hand he commenced: "My dear old friend, are you thinking of going to heaven?"

"Yah," said the German, "ven I gets my green-backs changed mit gold"

"You don't understand me," remarked the preacher, "I mean don't you want to go to heaven?"

"Vell I dinks not; I vas at New Haven once and it is a bad place. I believe I goss to Germany in the fall."

Miss Elanche Druggood, of Murfreesborough, Tenn., a highly accomplished and most estimable young lady, will open the public school at Arlington, on Monday next. We are requested to state that the second meeting of the McFendrie and Spring Hill Sunday Schools will take place at Spring Hill school house on the 5th Sunday in July. There will the "lunch" on the ground. Everybody is invited to attend, especially music teachers. Music is the order of the day.

Mr. Henry Miller has an advertisement in this issue offering to sell 40 bushels of oats (he raised 80 bushels on less than two acres this year) at one dollar per bushel. Mr. Miller got the seed from Germany in a letter from a friend six years ago, and has sown it every year since. He says the oats stand better and are cleaner of rust than any other oats raised in the county. Try them

A picnic near Mrs. Young's place on Long Br. in this county will come off on Saturday. It is about five miles from Erin on the grounds and conveyances can be procured from here. Everybody is invited and young people anticipate a good time. The general managers are John Knight, James Newberry, Will McNeal M. Ross, A.J.Crosswell and C.C.Scholes.

Mr. R.W.Acree, photographer, has located at this place, at least for a short length of time and is prepared to make photographs of any style. SOMETHING AT DANVILLE

Last Friday night we were awakened from dream-land by a most delightful serenade. Thanks due Messrs Alex French and C. Rushing

A young lady of Danville has for a pet a pure white rat. It is a native of West Indies. It is very gentle and will eat from it young mistress' hand and answers to the name of Oscar. It has every peculiarity of the common rat.

From the first of March until the first of June there was not a single young lady in our village. We now number ten, all of the absentees have returned.

Danville is looking better at the present time and it has for years. The mud left by the high water has given place to white-wash and paint. Business is very brisk for this season of the year. There is to be a basket picnic and barn dance near Whitefield' Saw Mill on the 18th. A good time is expected.

TEACHER EXAMINATIONS—The teacher's examination met on Thursday and a board of Examiners was appointed consisting of Misses Ella Lowe, Elanche Dringood, Messrs W.H.Fassy, McDull Derric, E.E.Larkins and G.T.Abernathy. The following persons presented themselves to the board as applicants for certification: Misses Ida Davis, Mary Jessee, Lula Webb, Messrs

J.A.Holmes, T.A.McASKILL, W.A.Tomlinson, J.A. Tomlinson, W.W.Patterson, W.B.Richardson, J.T. Petty, D.A.Haney, H.E.Neville, and B.J.Rye. Some dissatisfaction was expressed by some of the applicants by the fact that Messrs Neville and Rye had waited until they heard the most difficult part of the examination and then presented themselves as applicants. Some of the applicants are very inferior, not being competent to teach a class of six year old boys.
