Wills, estate inventories, estate sales, and guardian financial reporting are all in the microfilm called WILLS AND INVENTORY. Booklet 18 and 19 covers app. 700 pages of Will Book I and II.

In the wills, I have deleted some of the legal terminology..."Be it remembered in the county of Houston and in the state of Tennessee, I" by using...Also, if the calls for the land area are marks no longer findable "north to the rock pile...w to forked hickory", I have omitted this. If the calls for the land area include a person's line, creek, road, etc., it is listed.

A personal inventory and sale is listed completely including name of item, buyer, and amount paid. Three store inventories are shortened but all buyers are listed and all items are listed at least once: Example: the E.D.Boone store took two days to sell the contents and there are 60 pages of entries (20 pr. of suspenders were sold to 20 buyers). You may find an item listed in the inventory that is still in the family. There will be items sold that you do not know what they are-example: steelyards are a type of balance scale.

The TABLE OF CONTENTS at the beginning is listed in the order it is listed in the Will Book with the symbol (W) for will (I) for inventory and (G) guardian report. These are also listed on the index at the end in alphabetical order. There is no date on some of these items so you will have to estimate by using the date of the item before and the item after.

INDEX of buyers, people who owed the estate money, witnesses to the documents, administrators, are listed by surname only in the index and a (*) is placed by the surname if the surname has more than ten (10) entries

Hopefully, this will allow some of you to put more "meat" on an ancestor's skeleton. As I have suggested to several of you, if you don't like, for some reason, your immediate ancestor, go back a few generations and you may find some you do like. The following may be appropriate for booklet 18 and 19.

When you peer into the branches of your new-found family tree, Imagine faces 'neath the branches
as they're looking back at thee.

On those limbs will be some knots
and some may have some scars,
Some knots may be repulsive
but some will be your stars.

While you's peering 'neath the branches
looking for a different view, Think of what they must be thinking as they're looking back at you.

Beginning...Grices Creek near the ford of the creek and public road leading from Cumberland City to Charlotte then east with G.W.Dowdy's line to G.W.Dowdy's S.E. corner then south with the lands of Mrs. B.F.Moore to the east fork of Grices Creek to the lands of G.M.Wood down the creek to elm, then S W to the Spring Branch to the lands of J.J.Parchman then west to Grices Creek then down the creek to the beginning with this understanding that they are to keep said land together and in case either one should sell, he must sell to one of the others, and if either one should sell to an outside party he thereby forfeits his interest . Said land is to remain in the hands of their father J.J.Parchman and he to have control thereof until the youngest of the four boys becomes of age. The intention of this will is to carry out a request made by my father JOHN PARCHMAN on his dying bed that this land remain as long as possible in the PARCHMAN family

I, ELIZABETH JANE MARABLE, do hereby on this the 22nd day of May 1902, make this my last will and testament. It is my desire...all my property both real and personal...be held after my death to such time as may appear the most opportune to the executors of this will... After the payment of my funeral expenses, including grave stones for the graves of my beloved husband, deceased, and me, I desire all my debts be paid and after this, I will and bequeath 5/6 of the remainder...to my five beloved sons: JAMES B., JOHN R., RICKMAN, GEO.W.B., and WILLIAM B. MARABLE, share and share a like...one sixth, provided that I or my estate be forced to pay off a certain note to Ed Wickham, amounting to about one hundred and fifty dollars, on which I am surety for my said son JOHN R. MARABLE, then this amount shall be deducted from JOHN R's portion and added to the common fund.

The other one sixth of the proceeds of said sale or sales, shall be taken by the executors of this will and held in trust for my beloved daughter MARY MARGARET LOCKHART, wife of Thomas Lockhart, she being now non-compos mentis and in the hospital for the insane at Nashville, Tenn. awaiting her recovery. Should she ever recover from her said malady and return to her said husband and remain with him for two whole years at his home, without any evidence of said malady...and be pronounced by experts on disease of the mind...then the said one-sixth shall be paid over to her...with the accrued interest at 6%...It must be remembered however that I already advanced to my said daughter one hundred dollars which shall be a charge upon her interest ...if payment is made to her, this $100 shall be deducted from said one-sixth. ...no portion of my estate be paid to her until the end of two years after her recovery... Should she recover from said malady and be discharged from said hospital, but not return to her said husband, an amount shall be set aside for her...to pay her reasonable living expenses...if she never recovers...but dies before such time, then the said 1/6...shall be equally divided among my said five sons JAMES B., JOHN R., RICKMAN, GEO.W.B., and WILLIAM B....appoint my sons RICKMAN and GEORGE and J.C.Hobbs as my executors other means of support and are not dependent upon my. I am not indebted to any of my children for any money advanced to me...in the presence of J.O.West and Michel Savage...

Last will and testament of J.P.J. SCHMIDT, deceased, Denmark, Tenn. July 10th 1906
 page 257

If I should die before my wife, I would like for all my children to respect the following as my last will. JAMES can have the old Collison Mill on White Oak Creek, with all improvements and land by giving first class mortgage for $400 bearing interest at 6%...payable to his sister ELLEN from January 1st 1905 to whom the mortgage belongs for life time and can only be collected if she needs the money to live upon. If she dies without heirs, I wish all she leaves divided equal among all her sisters and brothers though I will leave to ELLEN to do as she pleases. I will appoint H.J. SCHMIDT from Elk Creek, Stewart, Co, to be her guardian and render her all the assistance she may need at any time. As all of our married children have had some money and property amounting to two hundred dollars, I will let mother do as she pleases with all my notes and interest and all our personal property belongs to my wife, also half of the farm on which we live, the other half, I will and give to A.C. SCHMIDT as his part. Our youngest daughter MAVEN (?) had not got her part, I give her one hundred $100.00 dollars when she gets a home. Peter also has more coming to him, do as you please mother and I will be satisfied.
